

Welcome,

In an effort to anticipate your questions regarding our policies and procedures, we have prepared a series of documents to inform you about the eviction process. Since it is impossible to cover all your potential questions, we expect and welcome your specific questions and encourage you to give us a call to discuss your questions. We do offer some free legal notices to our clients, you will find them on our website, thslawfirm.com, under Evictions Forms. We invite and encourage you to explore our website as it contains valuable and comprehensive information about Evictions as well as all of our legal services for landlords.

If you have any questions please email our office at situations@thslawfirm.com and one of our staff members will reach out to assist you.

Thank You,

Tschetter Sulzer PC